

D.A.V. PUBLIC SCHOOL

No. 19, Sitaram Nagar, Velachery, Chennai – 42

REPORT ON THE CLASS ASSEMBLY OF VIII – A DURING THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2024 -2025

Class Teacher: Ms. Shenbaga Priya G

Date: 07.08.2024 (Wednesday)

Timing: 8.30 a.m. to 9.00 a.m.

Class Strength: 40

Topic: “How School Fosters Holistic Development among Students – Time Management”

The Class Choir of VIII A, flagged off the Assembly with the chanting of the Gayatri Mantra invoking the blessings of the lord Almighty followed by the DAV Gaan. The ‘Salutary Oration’ was presented by Abirami T and Anu Harshita Yadala to the guests.

The first programme of the Assembly was ‘Eloquent Exposition.’ Sai Harshith Kuppachi and Rushil Bhargav waxed eloquent on the meaning and dimensions of Holistic Development in a simple and lucid manner.

The main programme of the Assembly was ‘Allayna’s Almanac’. The objective of the skit was to drive home the importance of Time Management in achieving success in a person’s life. The three scenes of the skit focussed on the three steps of Time Management – Planning, Prioritisation and Execution.

The first scene emphasised the importance of Planning by discussing the role of the Ready Reckoner. The various information given in the Ready Reckoner like Schedule of exams, holidays, celebrations, inter house competitions, Parent Teacher Meetings, Class Photograph dates, Project Submission dates and how they help in planning different activities of students were explained in detail.

The second scene highlighted the importance of Prioritising work in the correct manner. The role of teachers and the school’s motivation that help students prioritise work of different types was elucidated clearly.

The third scene depicted the means of Executing the plans made through the portrayal of assembly preparation by students in a musical manner. The values developed in students through planning and preparing for the Assembly, like Team Work, Problem Solving, Responsibility and Time Management were illustrated through placards.

Allayna’s Almanac / Journal was a constant element throughout the skit, travelling along with the audience tracing the journey of Allayna in embracing the work ethics and values she imbibes in her new school. The students used placards with relevant phrases, to enhance the aesthetics of presentation.

The final programme of the Assembly was ‘Casual Caper’. Students grooved to peppy tunes depicting the mood of students over different periods of time regarding preparation for exams. The catchy tunes and breezy steps brought the entire audience alive.

Deeksha Ramani T, had made a portrait of Mrs. Sujatha .M, our principal which was presented to her in the Assembly. Principal ma’am appreciated her talent and thanked her for the wonderful gift. Dakshesh M presented the Requital Response to thank everyone for supporting the performers in preparation and presentation of the Assembly. Principal Ma’am and Parents showered praises on the students for their marvellous depiction of a highly relevant topic. The event concluded with the rendition of the National Anthem followed by Shanti Paat.

Eloquent Exposition on Holistic Development

Rendezvous with the Ready Reckoner

Peroration on Prioritisation

Casual Caper on Exam Preparation

DA Vites Insight on Time Management

Honouring Our Inspiring Leader